MRS. CHAMBERLAIN PRESENTED COVETED "THANKS BADGE"

Mrs. Donald Chamberlain was presented the coveted "Thanks Badge" of the Girl Scout Organization, at the monthly meeting of Mariner Troop No. 1, February 18. Mrs. Chamberlain has led this troop for the past six years. The badge was presented Mrs. Chamberlain by Linda Sharp on behalf of all members of the Troop, who expressed their love and appreciation for the generous contribution of time Mrs. Chamberlain has devoted to them in their growth and fun during these years.

Neighborhood Meeting of Girl Scouts was held February 19, at 8:30 a. m. and was presided over by Mrs. Joseph Colson, vice-chairman. Mrs. Bruce Sharp, chairman, was unable to attend the meeting.

March 10, through March 16, is Girl Scout Week. 1957 Cookie Chairman, Mrs. Santos Rosato, advised the annual Cookie Sale of the Girl Scouts will begin March 8, and will continue for two weeks. These delicious cookies may be purchased from all Girl Scouts, with advance orders placed with Mrs. Rosato, phone 914, deliveries will be made at time of sale. Many customers buy these cookies by the carton and store them for use throughout the year in deep freezers.

Mrs. C. C. McDonald, president of the Live Oak Chapter, presented Mrs. Colson with a certificate of Merit, which was awarded her at the Girl Scout Banquet held recently in Gulfport, which Mrs. Colson was unable to attend.

Attending the regat pair in the court will be more than twenty couples, the royal maids attended in gorgeous ball gowns befitting the occasion, accompanied by their dukes in white-ties and tails.

A beautiful tableau will be presented at the ball to add to the spectacle. Following a dance reserved for the court, there will be general dancing and merry-making for all who attend the affair. St. Stanislaus College's popular orchestra will furnish music.

As usual, no one knows the identity of the King and Queen beforehand. That's what makes a Mardi Gras Ball a real ball. And who would miss the fun of trying to worm the secret out of those who do know? We all like to be surprised.

The theme, too, is kept a secret. We can give you a hint, though. Come to the ball and you will, indeed, see life through rose-colored glasses.

Reserved seats are $2.00 and general admission, $1.00.

The Management and Employees of Coast Electric Power Association recently completing 200,000 consecutive man-hours without a lost-time accident, on Thursday evening, February 21 added the third bar to their Rural Electric Cooperative Safety Plaque. The plaque is the award of the Safety Engineering Department of Employers Mutual Liability Insurance Company of Wisconsin, presented to the Association upon the initial achievement of 50,000 such hours. Presentation of this award was made by Mr. Bill Maxey, Engineer of Employers Mutual, at a buffet dinner given at Hotel Reed by Coast Electric, in recognition of this achievement of its employees, and honoring guests of the occasion. Accepting the award on behalf of the Association, its Management and Employees, was Mr. H. H. Shattuck, Manager.

Shown above is Mr. Bill Maxey, Engineer of Employers Mutual, presenting the third bar to be added to the Rural Electric Cooperative Safety Plaque, representing 50,000 additional man hours without a lost-time accident. Photo by Nelius Favre.

The Mississippi State Highway Patrol's representatives were Messrs. Wm. (Bill) Kenny and Fred Curet of Bay St. Louis; Fred Meling of Poplarville and Zeke Clark of Picaune.

Walter James Phillips, well known State Legislator from Hancock County, was among the guest speakers. The Directors of Coast Electric on this occasion were Messrs. Otho Rester, Geo. Curet and R. P. Turan. The latter two were accompanied by their wives. Almost in full attendance were the 45 employees of Coast Electric, including office, construction and maintenance personnel. A well rounded program of general speaking and musical entertainment was provided. Mr. Shattuck praised Coast Electric employees, and expressed his appreciation as their manager for the splendid cooperation he had received in making the award possible.

Mr. Maxey in his talk emphasized the significance of the award and the necessity for combined effort. Cooperation with the State Highway Patrol in safety measures, the Safety and Job Training Program of Mississippi State College, and the subject of rural electric development and its contribution to the farm home and the welfare of the State as a whole were treated by other speakers.

"Coast Electric has come a long way uphill since its inception in 1938," said Mr. Shattuck. "And now, in addition to its contribution to rural electrification, stands first among cooperatives in the State in its safety record," he said. "And intend to strive in the future as a group to attain the silver bar, which will mark the 250,000 hour goal—our next aim."

Representative Blaine Eaton Smith County, and Executive Manager of the Mississippi Rural Electric Ass'n., Jackson, cited "More progress in this area in the rural electrification program than in any other section of the State because the people worked together to make it the best in the State." He said, "Prices for service have not increased because your manager and the directors have worked together." He summed up the Association's progress by calling its results, "The best record, the best Association and the best employees."

H. H. Shattuck, Manager, in his remarks stated that Coast Electric now served some 6900 rural consumers in Hancock, Harrison and Pearl River Counties and was growing at the rate of 350 new members per year.

Robert Linder, principal of the Lakeshore school, appeared before Justice of the Peace Court, with Justice Nelius Rhodes presiding, as a defendant charged with assault and battery for the alleged beating of seventh grade student Michael Lafontaine.

Trial was scheduled for Monday, Feb. 25, after charges had been filed by the parents of the child, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lafontaine, who claimed that on Feb. 21, Linder beat the boy with a stick or wooden plank until he was black and blue, for having rung the school bell.

A continuance of the hearing was granted Monday when a request for a jury hearing was made by the defendant, with the trial set for 10:00 a. m., Tuesday, Feb. 26.

A panel of jurors was summoned for the six man jury. Linder appeared with his attorney, Randall Jones, Pass Christian. The Lafontaine boy was represented by L. M. Gex, Sr.

Gex requested a writ and returns on the jurors, and when informed by Deputy Sheriff August Scaife that none had been issued in obtaining a panel of jurors, Gex presented a written motion to the court, claiming an illegal venire, and requesting the men summoned be discharged from possible jury duty, with proper legal method of obtaining jurors adopted.

Jones countered this motion with legal verbiage. The motion was granted by Justice Rhodes, and court was recessed until 1:30 p. m. to allow time for the Constable to summon another panel of men for jury duty.

At the afternoon session, a law which permits a case in which a minor and a school board employee are involved as principals, was brought before the court. This law states in brief that such a case may be put before the Superintendent of Education and the School Board of Trustees for an opinion, with the court privileged to accept such opinion in rendering a verdict.

Such a hearing is done in private minus jurors. An opinion by this body will be given Monday to Justice Rhodes.

WAVELAND WANDERINGS
GEORGETTE B. HALL

Saturday night was a most enjoyable one for the "Get Together Club." The spaghetti and meat ball dinner was served at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morreale, Bay St. Louis. Mr. Morreale was the chef and the response and comments on his specially prepared dish were more than complimentary. About 16 members of the club were present. The next meeting of the group will be held at the home of Mrs. Ruth Ketchum in Waveland.

Mrs. Ketchum had a wonderful surprise during the week when she received a long wished for gift from her sister, Miss Ester Kirsch, who lives in New Orleans. The gift was a magnificent organ which Mrs. Ketchum is enjoying to the fullest.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Salloum and Mrs. T. H. Brockman enjoyed a dinner on Saturday at the home of Mrs. Grace Drum and her sisters, Margy and Martha. Their cottage on Railroad Avenue in Waveland was recently damaged by fire. It has been practically rebuilt, making it most modern, comfortable and attractive.

Mrs. Ruth Meileur, Mrs. Ruth Ketchum and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Reab motored to Hattiesburg Sunday. While there they visited Miss Clara Ketchum who is a student at Mississippi Southern.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hirsutius spent the weekend in their home in Washington Heights.

Wilbur Nunez, Hamilton Guenard and Norman Sonier accompanied the other band students from Bay High School, when the group and their director, Mr. Marcel Lanasa, joined other bands

New Orleans to see the parade and the maskers, many folks stay here at home and eagerly await the Mardi Gras festivities held in Bay St. Louis. This event has grown into one of great interest and beauty. But Mardi Gras, like any other holiday, brings with it a feeling of relaxation and carelessness and, serious injury or death can result from speeding or thoughtless driving. We hope that Mardi Gras will not be marred this year by accidents of any kind. It's up to you!

Tension is growing by leaps and bounds as to the identity of this year's King and Queen of the Bay St. Louis Carnival Ball to be held this Friday night in the St. Joseph Gym. Nowhere is interest keener than in Waveland, where the guesses are running wild and free. It is the belief of many that at least one of their majesties is from Waveland, and one might literally bump into their royal persons at the drug store or the post office and never know it! How can we wait until Friday?

Following a flight to New York and Washington, D. C. where they spent two weeks, Walter Gex, Jr., and his son Hartwell returned to Bay St. Louis Tuesday.

DIES AT HER HOME NEAR LUMBERTON
After an illness of at least three years, Mrs. J. M. Byrd died at the family home in the Byrd Line community near Lumberton on Thursday night, January 23, at eight-thirty o'clock. For several weeks she had been losing strength rapidly and finally members of the family decided that the end was near, but as is always the case, they were not ready for her passing.

Funeral services were held Saturday at ten-thirty in Little Black Creek Church with the Rev. Hugh Byrd, Pastor, being assisted by the Rev. Scarborough, a relative of the family. Interment was in the cemetery at the church.

Mrs. Byrd was born Nov. 1, 1903, on the Mississippi Coast and was Miss Mattie Hale before her marriage to Albert Brooks, deceased. A number of years ago she married Mr. Byrd who survives her. She was a quiet, unassuming lady who maintained high standards of living throughout all of her life. She was an inspiration to those who knew her because of her loyalty to every obligation she assumed, and because of her kindness and gentleness and understanding. Her family had been devoted to her during her long illness and everything possible was done for her. When that was deemed to be the thing possible was done for her comfort and happiness she was loved very dearly and by those who loved her. The funeral services and the massing of flowers and the massing of sympathy all point to the system in which she and her family are held.

Mrs. Byrd's husband, Mrs. Byrd is survived by two children, Mrs. Roger Seemeyer of San Francisco, Calif., and Ralph Brooks who has lived near the family home since his mother's illness was known; two step-children, Mrs. Robert Bruggman of Fort Pierce, Fla., and Albert Brooks of Hernandez, her mother, Mrs. Victor Carver of Bay St. Louis; two sisters, Mrs. Jacob Ayrod of New Orleans and Mrs. Viola Roberts of Bay St. Louis and two half sisters, Mrs. Raymond Johnston and Mrs. Harold Johnston, both of Bay St. Louis. There are seven grandchildren. Two others need mentioning as being devoted in their efforts to make life easy for Mrs. Byrd. These are Mrs. Albert Brooks, of Hernandez and Mrs. Ralph Brooks of Bay Lipe, the two daughters-in-law.

Funeral bearers were Dudley Walker, Dewey Walker, Clifford Byrd, Emmett Byrd, Hubert Byrd and Homer Ladner.

Uncle Sam Paired Nearly $50 Million Into State During Last Fiscal Year

Jackson, Miss.—Uncle Sam poured nearly $50 million dollars into Mississippi during the year ending June 30, 1956, a compilation of figures by the State Tax Commission showed today.

Joe B. Keith, director of research and statistics for the Tax Commission, said the exact figure is $49,745,640.56.

Comparatively speaking, the figure showed a steady increase in federal aid from 1950 when the total was $37,611,575.55.

More than half went for the state's public welfare program. To be exact, $25,015,243.50 in federal money bolstered the public welfare program.

It was divided this way: old age assistance $12,361,115, aid to dependent children $3,246,241, aid to blind $1,181,828, vocational aid to blind $174,733, child care $154,991, miscellaneous $896,328.

Running second to public welfare is the federal highway program in Mississippi which received $12,387,468 during the same 12 months.

Third place is the $2,848,163 in federal money for the school children.

Employment service ranked fourth with $2,319,307. Extension service got $1,682,550 in federal money; and vocational education $1,580,327.

The State Commission on Hospital Care received $1,002,103 last year, much of it for help in building hospitals.

The public health program got $1,509,938. Other programs in which federal money entered the state: forest protection $757,478; game and fish commission $222,964; civil defense $157,459; payments in lieu of taxes $86,430; flood control $67,152; Alcorn A&M College $49,544; Mississippi State College, $42,191; research and marketing services $23,316.

The report showed an estimated cash balance of $7,733,590 in the State Treasury will be left in the Treasury at the end of June 1956. Keith's research showed general fund receipts of 196,239,127 will be collected by that date. Against that estimated income, the 1956 Legislature has appropriated 188,505,536.

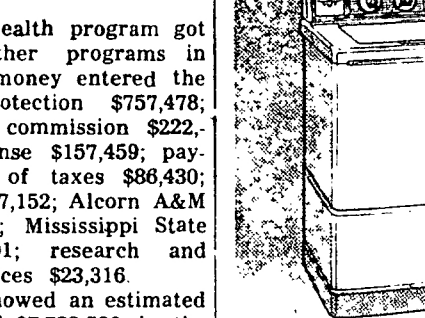

Mississippi's debt position is splendid, the report indicated.

SUCCESSFUL QUAIL AND RABBIT HUNTING SEASON CLOSES

Wednesday marked the close of one of the most successful quail and rabbit hunting seasons Mississippians have experienced in many years.

Reports received indicated that hunters had better success finding quail than they have had in many years. It would be difficult to single out any one area of the state as having the best hunting since all sections showed remarkable improvement. However, areas from which most favorable reports were received included the north central counties, east central counties and those in the southeastern section of the state. Many favorable reports were also received from certain sections of the delta.

It is believed that the most important factor contributing to the successful season were the excellent weather conditions during the spring nesting season followed by a moist summer that as

S. J. Ingram, superintendent, has announced that the school is planning to purchase a movie camera and train students to operate it. The camera will be purchased with school funds and be available when teachers, coaches, or the administration needs it. It is hoped that students in the various grades can be trained to operate the camera skillfully, so that these students can profit by at least two or three years' experience before graduating.

The freedom of the press is not worth anything unless the journalists of a nation have the courage to exercise it.

Health hint: It won't do you any good to know what caused you to suffer a physical collapse after your health is ruined.

Quail in most localities an abundance of food for rearing broods larger in number than has been common in recent years. Abundant plant growth during the summer also furnished quail with very good cover during the hunting season.

Executive Director Rex McRaney of the Game and Fish Commission stated today that the commission intended to do everything possible to assure continued successful quail hunting. In an endeavor to maintain high populations, McRaney said that Commission personnel were beginning at once a quail live-trapping and restocking program. Quail will be trapped from refuge throughout the state and released in areas where there is reason to believe that populations may have suffered from the successful hunting season. Principle releases will be made in the northern counties.

McRaney also stressed the fact that sportsmen should cooperate every way possible in assuring good quail hunting for other years by cooperating with law enforcement personnel in observing hunting season regulations and by carrying out their own habitat improvement practices. He urged all sportsmen and landowners to take advantage of all habitat improvement practices made available to them through the Game and Fish Commission and the Soil Conservation Service. He specifically outlined the Commission's Lespedeza bicolor program where plants or seed of this valuable quail food are made available to all by application through the Soil Conservation Service. He also pointed out the many wildlife conservation opportunities made available to landowners through the Soil Bank Program of Soil Conservation Service stressing the fact that farmers may receive payment for carrying out these wildlife management practices on their conservation reserve areas.

COLLEGE SERVICE AWARDS

Solon High School Court of Presentation

Washington, Feb. 22.—Three members of the high school band were awarded Friday night by the Solon High School Court of Presentation at a George Washington Day dinner at which the "outstanding contributions" to the public service were extolled by Rep. Carl Reese (R-Tenn.).

The Alexander Hamilton Commission, joined by the American Good Government Society, presented the George Washington award to Colmer.

Presentations were made to Colmer and to Sen. Karl E. Mundt, Republican of South Dakota. Hundreds of people including a number of South Mississippians and members of the Colmer family from Pascagoula and elsewhere attended the dinner meeting at the Statler hotel.

Presentation by Reese

Dr. John A. Krout, vice-president of Columbia University, spoke on George Washington and his close relation and long association with Alexander Hamilton. Presentation of the award to Mundt was made by Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina. Rep. Reese presented the award to Rep. Colmer.

Reese, in making the presentation, said Colmer is one of the men who recognizes that the state created the federal government and not the other way around. The citation presented to Colmer reads as follows:

"Lawyer, and statesman, educator, soldier, and conservationist, he has served Mississippi and the nation for 35 years as county attorney and district attorney for 24 years as a representative of Congress of the United States.

"Under his chairmanship the special committee on post war economic policy and planning developed comprehensive plans for conversion of the national economy from war to peace, and recommended a new and firm policy toward Russia.

"Champion of sound fiscal policy, his wise and courageous leadership has cut the cost of government by billions of dollars.

"Rep. Colmer's understanding of the American political system—a limited dual sovereignty of state and nation as a heritage of English law and his determination that it shall continue free from the fetters of a European social democracy have won for him a powerful influence among his colleagues in the Congress—an influence for the good of the people of the United States."

Following Lenin

The dean of the Mississippi congressional delegation said in reply that for more than a decade he has heard repeatedly in Congress that the dictators in Moscow want neither war nor peace. He said the people in the Kremlin appear to be following the blueprint of their idol, Lenin, who wrote that the way to conquer the US was to make it spend itself into bankruptcy.

"If this be a correct analysis of the sinister Russian objective," he said, "they certainly have no special useful allies than the special interests and minority groups who year after year descend upon Washington seeking larger and larger favors from the public till."

'Peril of Unbridled Spending'

Colmer told the society and its many guests that along with the "peril of unbridled spending and exorbitant taxation" he was sure the American Good Government Society is alarmed with the "ever increasing tendency toward consolidation of power in the federal government at the expense of the states and the freedom of our citizens."

He said the states no longer have any right which the federal government is bound to respect. At the same time he said he regretted to acknowledge that partial responsibility of whittling away the rights of the states lies on the shoulders of Congress. He said Congress has passed laws in vague general terms empowering federal agencies to set up bureaucracies, issue directives, and make interpretations which bear little resemblance to the acts passed by Congress.—N. O. Times-Picayune.

STANISLAUS WINS DISTRICT 8 A-AA CAGE TOURNAMENT

Getting off to a fast start in the opening minutes of the game, the St. Stanislaus Rockchaws of Coach Ernie Smith, came through as expected by scoring a 21-29 victory over the Bay High Tigers Saturday night in the finals of the District 8 A-AA cage tournament.

Bay High was slow getting started and the score was 7-0 in favor of the Rocks before the Tigers finally dumped a basket. James Brooks forward, who played his second game as one of the five starters for the Rocks, was top man of the night, and dumped 20 points, leading his team in scoring. At the end of the first quarter of play, the Rocks were ahead 21-8.

The Rocks kept rolling along at a steady pace for the remainder of the half and had a comfortable lead at the sound of the whistle.

In the second half, both coaches sent their second teams in, who battled furiously for the remainder of the contest. At the final gun, the Rocks had a comfortable 32-point lead over the Tigers.

The Rockchaws and Tigers, as well as the girls from Lumberton and Sumrall will represent District 8 in the South Mississippi Regional Tourney this weekend.

The boys' games will be held in Prentiss, and the girls will vie at Magee Miss., Friday night at 7:00 the Rocks will play Forest, and Bay High will take on Forest Hill.

The American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 129, is supporting the "Save the Children Federation" by providing, clean, wearable clothing—used or new, for children in the United States and in some overseas countries. Believe it or not, some children are going to school in the snow, without shoes—yes, barefoot! The Children's Federation advises that clothing for children, babies and adults is needed. Shoes for school children in particular.
